GLENDALÉ ANNOUNCES NEW COURT HEARING OFFICER

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – After an extensive search, the city of Glendale has selected Manuel Delgado, Jr. as its new Court Hearing Officer.

Delgado has practiced in Criminal Law and Domestic Relations, was a Public Defender for the city of Glendale as well as the city of Surprise. In 2003, was appointed to the Arizona Board of Psychologist Examiners.

“We have worked with Mr. Delgado for a number of years as a Public Defender and are very pleased with the work he has done,” states Presiding Judge Elizabeth Finn. “Mr. Delgado has the experience we’re looking for and the sense of community that is valued in a court official.”

Delgado holds a B.S. in Business Administration from Arizona State University and graduated from the Arizona State University College of Law, and has been an Adjunct Professor for Glendale Community College.

Delgado officially began his duties on August 2, 2006.
